Controversy brews over Hillman contract

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Hancock County School Board members approved the minutes from a February 15 meeting Monday, after amending them to exclude two letters of recommendation concerning the renewal of high school principal Donald Hillman's contract for the 1991-92 school year.

Hillman's contract was not renewed for 1991-92. School board members Lenette Necaise and Kay Sones voted against extending it, board president Frank Miller abstained and Carol Bustetter was not present for the vote.

When questioned about reasons for not renewing the principal's contract, Sones said, "In all fairness to Mr. Hillman, that information will be provided to him first."

Lenette Necaise made the proposal to remove the letters from the minutes and Kay Sones seconded the proposal to prevent them from becoming part of public record before Hill-man's hearing is conducted.

Necaise and Miller refused comment on the February 15 action not to rehire the principal.

Bustetter volunteered that she was absent from the February 15 meeting because of a death in the family and added, "but I would like you to know this is only the third meeting I have missed this year."

Superintendent Terrell Randolph stated that the board had not yet set a date for the hearing.

Board attorney Joseph Gex reported the hearing must be conducted within 30 days from the day Hillman formally requested it. Hillman delivered a letter of request on Friday, Feb. 22.

Hancock High teachers have rallied behind their principal of 11 years by circulating a petition addressed to the Hancock County School Board asking that they reconsider their action.

The text of their letter follows:

February 20, 1991

Dear Hancock County School Board,

We, the faculty and staff of Hancock High School, would like to request that you reconsider your decision not to rehire Mr. Donald Hillman as principal of Hancock High School for the 1991-92 school year.

We feel that Mr. Hillman has been a competent administrator who is deeply concerned with the excellence of education in this county, the welfare of all students who attend Hancock High, and that he exemplifies fair and impartial treatment in his dealings with everyone.

Mr. Hillman has been the head of the Hancock High family for 11 years. It was under his leadership that our school began to excel in all areas of learning and social development for students. Hancock

Human Services Complex to be dedicated March 3

BY TRACI BONNEY

The Hancock County Human Services Complex, which was for many years a dream, is now a reality.

For the past decade, grand juries have in their reports remarked on the need for a human services building to replace the facilities being used at the time. Now, after several unsuccessful attempts by county officials to obtain grant money, the county has its new human services building.

A bond issue enabled the county to execute the $1.2 million building project. An April 5, 1990, groundbreaking started the construction of the complex, which houses five offices — the Health Department, the Cooperative Extension Office, the Welfare Department, the Social Services Department and the Mississippi State Employment Service — and also has a small meeting room and a demonstration kitchen.

The architect for the project was Michael Reeves. The contractor was GM&R, structural engineer was Schrenk, Schrenk & Peterson of New Orleans; mechanical/electrical engineer was Cannon Engineering Company of Gulfport.

The building will be dedicated Sunday, March 3, at 2 p.m. with a ribbon cutting and open house. Fifth Congressional District Rep. Gene Taylor will be the guest speaker.

Other speakers will include Wallace Bradley, welfare director for the Hancock County Department of Human Services; Darlene Underwood, home economist, and Randy Smith, county agent, for the Hancock County Cooperative Extension Service; and Dr.

Robert Travnick, MPH, for the Mississippi State Department of Health.

Board of Supervisors president Ronald Cuevas will give the welcome, introduce the speakers and make the closing remarks. Board vice president Michael Ladner will lead the Pledge of Allegiance.

Conrad Maufray will sing the National Anthem; Monsignor Gregory Johnson will give the invocation; and the Rev. Van Carpenter will give the benediction.

The ribbon cutting and tour of the complex will follow the ceremony. Refreshments will be served in the Civic Center after the tour.

The public is invited and encouraged to attend the dedication.

Chapman, Penrose vie Saturday

Voters inside the Bay-Waveland School District but outside of the Bay St. Louis city limits will go to the polls Saturday from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. at Waveland Elementary School to elect a trustee. Incumbent Linda Penrose, who is an administrative secretary, faces Arthur J. (Pete) Chapman, owner of Chapman Business Service and Realtor associate with Coldwell Banker Nell Frisbie.

Raises to become reality for county school workers

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Hancock County School Board members approved pay raises of up to 13 percent for all non-certified workers Monday, February 25.

The raises will affect approximately 130 school district employees. Those who will receive raises will be bus drivers, bus mechanics, cafeteria personnel, Chapter I federal program personnel, teacher assistant personnel, office and clerical workers.

The percentage of the raise will be determined by the number of years the employee has worked with the district and by

Teens arrested in rash of burglaries

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Waveland Investigator James Varnell reported that in a joint investigation with Bay St. Louis and the Hancock County Sheriff's department four juveniles and one 18-year-old adult were arrested Tuesday for several burglaries which have occurred within the past month.

Varnell said Gerald Blume

Jr., 18, of Waveland was arrested and charged with burglary and grand larceny and is presently being held in the Hancock Justice Facility under an $11,000 bond.

The four juveniles, ages 15-17, were turned over to youth court, added Varnell.

Blume and the juveniles were arrested following a search of Blume's residence, where articles which had been reported stolen, were found.

Varnell stated that Blume and the juveniles are considered responsible for the burglary of Charlie and Ramona's Bar and Ken's Barber Shop, both located on Coleman Avenue, and three Waveland residences.

Bay St. Louis detective Captain David Parker reported that three bicycles were recovered which had been stolen in Spanish Acres Subdivision on February 22.

Hancock County Task Force

Director Matt Karl, with the Sheriff's Department, reported that group was believed responsible for a rash of burglaries in Shoreline Park.

"Blume and two of the juveniles are charged with burglaries that occurred on Tennessee Street," said Karl.

According to Varnell the youths broke into homes and businesses stealing alcohol, cigarettes, money, televisions, bicycles and a VCR.

Karl said, it is believed Blume made himself at home in one of the residences he burglarized in Shoreline Park by eating, drinking and sleeping through the night.

Assisting in the joint investigation was Sheriff Department Deputy George Bursleson and Sheriff Department Auxiliary Deputy Corkey Hoda.

Plans are underway for the construction of a concession stand at the Necaise Crossing ballpark.

County road superintendent Sam Cuevas, supervisor Lisa Coward, Park Commission director Hilda Bourg and four of the county's five park commissioners met with a group of concerned parents Monday night to discuss the need for lights and a permanent concession stand at the park.

The park has two fields. The smaller field has lights, but the larger one does not. This means the older children must play either in the day or elsewhere.

The smaller children can play at night, but if they need to use the restroom, they must walk approximately a city block and up a hill to use the only facilities available.

The proposed concession stand includes restroom facilities, eliminating the need for the trek.

Mike Cuevas, president of the Hancock-West Harrison Dixie Youth League, said the purpose of Monday's meeting was to see where the league stands and what they have to work with to improve the park.

The circulation of copies of a supervisors' motion caused

KILLING TIME

Stuffing my stuff

By Traci Bonney

I just read a Times-Picayune column by Angus Lind, the paper's humor columnist. He was writing about the growing problem he has with his wallet — namely, that it is growing in thickness without much sign of stopping.

He said the problem is caused only in part by the credit cards — store, gas, bank, etc. — he holds. Most of his wallet's expansion is being caused by other things — every picture ever taken of his children, all those little coupons, rebate offers and "Buy nine and get the tenth one free" punch cards people seem to collect.

Well, I can understand his situation. I have the same problem, on a larger scale — my purse.

Men may end up with overstuffed wallets, and that is a bit of a tragedy. But believe me, it doesn't compare to an overstuffed purse, not by a long shot.

I used to carry those dainty little feminine handbags some women use. These things must have been designed by a man who thought women need only slightly more room for their necessary items.

I can hear it now — the guy said something like: "Hey, why don't we take a wallet, make it just a little bigger — you know, to accommodate those cute little hair brushes, the lipsticks and compacts the ladies use — and hang it off a strap. That ought to do the trick."

That did do the trick, once upon a time. Nowadays, though, those dainty little handbags could pass for an in-purse organizer bag, at least for me.

My friends tease me about the size of my purse. One in particular calls it my suitcase. It is a bit larger than the average purse, but I wanted it that way.

When I found my new purse in the department store, I conducted a simple test to see if it would be large enough: I shoved my old purse into it. The old one fit inside the new one, so I bought it.

This purse works very well for me. On a work day, I can stick my notebook and camera into it and head out for an assignment. On Sundays and Wednesdays, my Bible and notebook occupy most of the space — at least, they do on rainy Sundays and Wednesdays.

If I took everything except my wallet out of my purse, it probably would function well as an overnight bag. It has enough room for a change of clothes and a toothbrush.

The main problems I have with it are 1) the plastic interior isn't holding up well under the weight of my things; and 2) it's getting overstuffed.

I don't know what the answer to Problem #1 is, unless it's to buy a more expensive purse, one that's made better and will hold up better.

As for Problem #2, I know what some women do; they buy smaller purses to limit the amount of stuff they carry around. I've tried that. It doesn't work.

So, what do I do? Throw out two-thirds of my stuff, and organize the rest better?

Or maybe I should just use a real suitcase. I have a small one that would do — for now.

Hancock Countians should be ashamed

Everyone who resides in Hancock County should be ashamed of the horrible condition of the road leading to Hancock High and Junior High schools at its exit point from Highway 603.

The operation of the school facility should not be a surprise to anyone, as it had been under construction for some time prior to its opening this past fall.

I have heard some say the entrance will have to be changed when Highway 603 is four-laned. This is possible, but at the pace the State Highway Department moves, this could be in the next century.

What do we want to do, go back about a hundred years when the roadway was constructed of oyster shells and when north of the exit at the Jourdan River and south at Bayou LaCroix a ferry was used to cross the water? Wake up folks, the twenty first century is fast approaching.

This road doesn't only lead to the high and junior high schools, but also to our county airport, vo-tech center as well as to the county's industrial airport.

School has been open now for several months. If the extra wear and tear on the school buses traveling over this area were known, the extra maintenance costs required could probably have already paid for the repair of the exit.

The Hancock County Board of Supervisors, Port & Harbor Commissioners, Superintendent and School Board members, Mississippi State Highway Department, Pearl River Community College Vo-tech officials, all local political leaders, parents of students, and residents of the county, including Bay St. Louis, Diamondhead and Waveland should all be ashamed of the exit off Highway 603 leading to our new multi-million-dollar school complex.

The time is now to forget political bickering, if there is any around, and have this matter addressed immediately.

Thank you!

"QUOTABLE QUOTES"

By Ellis C. Cuevas

I know many of you are aware of the annual St. Patrick's Day parade which rolls through the streets of Waveland each year.

This year's parade is scheduled for Saturday, March 16 at 2 p.m. and will once again be sponsored by the Waveland Civic Association.

The Waveland Civic Association is now looking for entries of floats, decorated cars, bicycles, trucks and marching groups.

An advertisement appears in Section C of this issue for those interested.

The St. Patrick's Day parade always seems to be a very popular fun time for participants as well as spectators.

If you are looking for further information, call Jay Lagasse at 467-7400.

The overlay on Beach Boulevard in Bay St. Louis looks very good, especially since the striping has been completed.

I am glad the surface job was completed this time and it is something motorists should enjoy for time to come.

I do want to commend all the elected officials responsible for a job well done.

Next Sunday afternoon, the long awaited dedication of the Hancock County Human Services Complex on Longfellow Road in front of the Civic Center is scheduled.

I have not been in the building as yet, but it sure looks like we have some very fine facilities.

I know a lot of folks have been waiting for years for a place where a number of agencies can be housed under one roof in Hancock County.

Our Hancock Supervisors will be happy to see you at the dedication at 2 p.m., Sunday, March 3. We plan on being there.

A very important election will be held on Saturday for the qualified electors outside the city limits of Bay St. Louis, but, who are in the Bay St. Louis-Waveland School District.

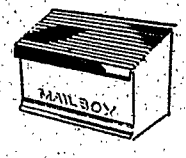

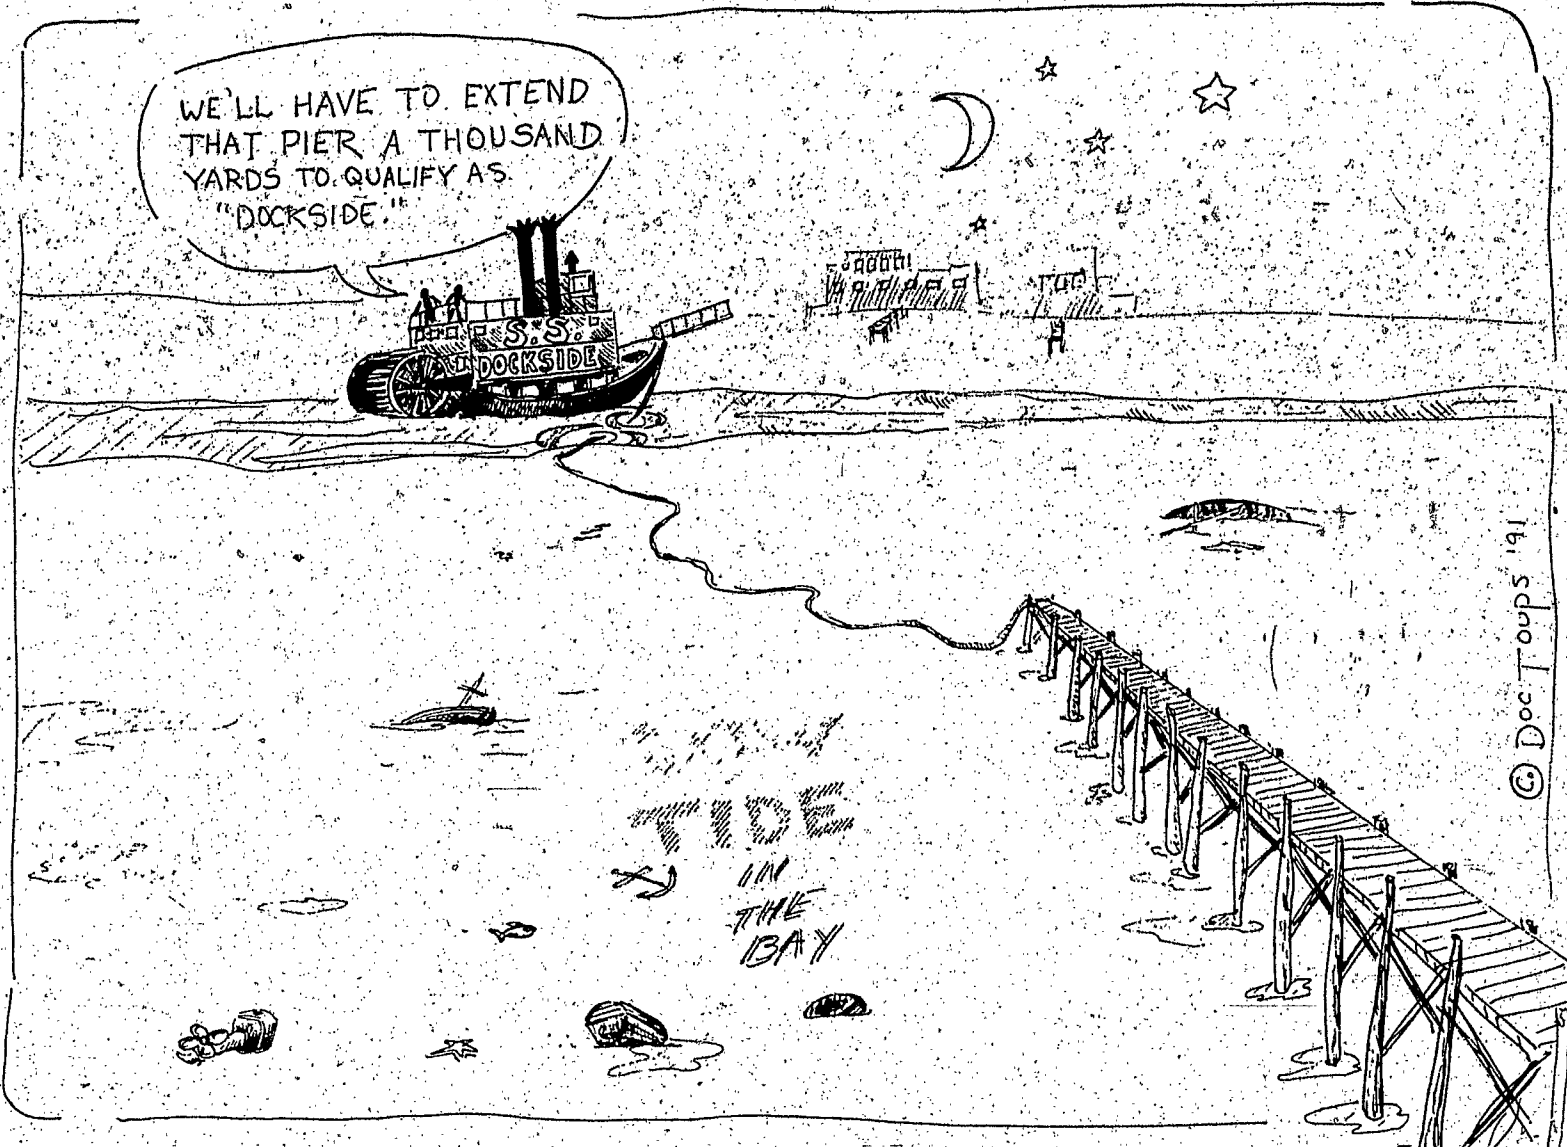

A school board trustee will be elected between incumbent Linda D. Penrose and challenger Arthur J. (Pete) Chapman III.

Those who can vote are the qualified electors of the City of Waveland and a portion of Shoreline Park.

The polls are located at the Waveland Elementary School with voting from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.

This election represents 20% of the representation on the school board, so you can see the importance of voting.

All qualified electors should remind their neighbors and get out and vote for the candidate of their choice.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Dockside gambling proposed site already has traffic problems

Editor:

The proposed and possible acceptance by local (well-meaning?) property owners at the foot of Main Street is a good example how local people put a mercenary value on an area already overburdened by vehicular traffic.

As if our police department doesn't have enough to do to control the local traffic!

Anyone wanting to risk his money at a gaming table can certainly drive a little further out of this heavily traveled area.

But, again, the local entrepreneurs would not get their share of the loot!

Parents want to see more Gulfview news

To the Editor,

We, as parents of students at Gulfview Elementary School in Lakeshore would like to direct our views and opinions expressed in this letter to the staff of the Sea Coast Echo.

In almost every issue of the local newspaper, your readers can see pictures and written articles on Waveland Elementary, North Bay Elementary, local parochial schools and local high schools, but not Gulfview Elementary School. It is not that we begrudge these schools, as we are happy for them. It's just that we feel discriminated against as we are outside of the city limits.

Now, we understand that our school only has approximately 574 students which may be comparably lower than the other schools' enrollments, but we feel that this makes our children and staff of our school no less important than any others. We have extremely hard working and dedicated students, faculty, staff and parents.

To the parents who would like to know why their children never make the newspaper for events they work hard for, we just want to say we don't know. Pictures and writeups have been brought to the Sea Coast Echo on four different occasions. Only employees of the Sea Coast Echo can explain why our school events don't make it to their publication.

In January we contacted the Sea Coast Echo and were told it would be corrected. Needless to say, we are still waiting to see articles of our school which don't seem to appear in the paper.

In closing, we would like to thank all who have worked for and with our students to make them caring, responsible little individuals and say that we are proud of our children and school. We feel like we spend our money to purchase this newspaper and would like to see our children in it every now and then.

Thank you for letting us voice our opinions.

It would seem that Mississippi is about to have a deep water harbor. A joint committee has been sounding the waters along the Mississippi Gulf Coast. The coast is in need of a deep harbor to facilitate its export of lumber, which figures so prominently in the state's commerce. Both Ship and Horn Islands, the two prospective points, have been carefully sounded, and a greater depth of water was found near Horn Island.

some stir among the parents at the meeting. The motion, made and passed in January 1990, authorized the transfer of $8,000 from the Buildings and Grounds budget to the Parks and Recreation budget for improvements at the park. The parents wanted to know why the money had not been used to make those improvements last year.

Both Bourg and Sam Cuevas said the money was not transferred, and Bourg added that the money was not used because it was originally earmarked for use to help pay for the park's lighting.

When funds for the lighting were called "extraneous" and tabled by the supervisors last year, no further mention was made of using the $8,000.

Cuevas said the money did not need to be transferred, but could be paid directly out of the Buildings and Grounds budget, since it would be used to construct a building.

In discussing lighting for the park, park commissioner Wayne Peterson asked if the supervisors could transfer some money from the general fund to the Parks and Recreation budget to compensate for cost overruns on the current Penton/Pearlington project caused by loss of in-kind labor. This, Peterson said, would give Bourg the money needed to fund the lighting.

Bourg said she did not know if the board could make the transfer. When the question was put to Coward later in the meeting, she said she would try to bring it before the board, but did not guarantee that the request would be authorized.

The park commission, considering other ways to fund the ballpark lighting, voted to ask the supervisors for $12,000 (the approximate amount that would be needed for materials if volunteers did the labor) from the 1991-1992 fiscal year budget.

After further discussion of both the lighting and the concession stand, the youth league parents asked if application could be made for a grant for the lighting. Bourg agreed to look into it.

Meanwhile, Sam Cuevas set up a meeting for Tuesday afternoon with Mike Cuevas, Burnell Ladner and others to draw up specific plans and material lists for the concession stand.

Sam Cuevas said that after the plans are finalized, a blueprint will be needed so he will know exactly how to pour the foundation for the stand. Volunteers will perform the bulk of the construction work.

He stressed to those at the meeting that it will probably be at least three weeks before construction can begin, since the materials must be advertised for bids.

Ladner said after the meeting, "It looks like we might have done something here tonight. I can't be sure yet, but it looks like we might have something."

Sam Cuevas described the meeting as "controlled pandemonium," then commented, "It's a start. This gives us something to work with, and when we get the plans settled we'll have somewhere to go."

Mike Cuevas said he thought group had made some progress at the meeting, and he stressed his concern for getting the ballpark in shape for the 1991 season.

"It's all for the children. We want to give them something to do to keep them out of trouble, off the streets and off drugs."

Raises

the type of job the employee performs.

The raises will be retroactive from January of this year to the end of the present school year and will be carried over into the 1991-92 school year.

A few of the bus drivers, reported board superintendent Terrell Randolph, will receive pay raises from this past August for additional duty performed since the beginning of the present school year.

According to Randolph, the pay raises were long in coming, but had to be placed on hold until the school district could calculate state cuts into the budget.

"This will be a very significant raise for most of the employees," added Randolph.

He estimated that the raises would total $92,000, of which $65,000 to $70,000 would be in actual money to the employees.

"The other 17 percent would go to Social Security and retirement payments," added Randolph.

ATTEMPTED BURGLARY

According to Bay St. Louis Police Department Investigator David Parker, Tommy Callahan, 23, of Bay St. Louis was arrested Tuesday on a charge of attempted burglary.

Parker said the arrest was made around 9:25 after the police department received a call about a prowler at 307 State Street. Officer Shane Korr and Sgt. Richard Hannah investigated. Upon arriving at the scene they began to pursue the suspect on foot from DeMontluzin to Toulme and back to Main Street, where they lost him.

Korr identified the suspect as being Callahan, who Korr and Hannah arrested later that night, Parker added.

Callahan is in the Hancock County jail under $5,000 bond.

BURGLARY

Investigator Matt Karl of the Hancock County Sheriff's Department reported the arrest of a Lakeshore resident on burglary charges.

Karl said Marion L. Schmidt, 23, was arrested Monday and charged with two counts of burglary in connection with burglaries in the Pearlinton area.

According to Karl, no bond has been set because Schmidt is on probation from Ga. on burglary charges.

Another arrest is possible in the case, which is still under investigation, he added.

Items taken, which have not yet been recovered, include assorted bottles of alcohol, a television, a Winchester 22 rifle, a 12-gauge Remington and a .410 shotgun.

SIMPLE ASSAULT

Investigator David Parker of Bay St. Louis reported the arrest Wednesday of Gregory Allen Jenkins, 28, of Bay St. Louis on multiple charges stemming from a fight.

Parker said Officer David Sellier arrested Jenkins and charged him with disorderly conduct, disturbing the peace and simple assault following an altercation at a laundromat at DeMontluzin and Hwy. 90.

Jenkins is in the Hancock County jail under $1,000 bond, Parker added.

BURGLARY

Bay St. Louis Police Department Investigator David Parker reported the arrests of two Louisiana residents Friday in connection with a March 3, 1990, burglary at Kergosien's Realty and Insurance.

Parker said C.L. Curtis, 43, and Colleen Leemans, 47, were arrested in Louisiana and charged with illegal possession of stolen property following a call February 21 from the Bogalusa, La., Sheriff's Office saying they had recovered some of the stolen items.

According to Parker, items taken in the burglary included computers, copiers, and other office supplies and equipment valued at about $16,000.

He said when the Bay St. Louis Police Department received the call Thursday from the Bogalusa Sheriff's Office, he faxed a copy of the burglary report to Bogalusa. On Friday, he received another call that the Bogalusa authorities had executed search warrants on two houses in Abita Springs, La., where other items were recovered and the arrests were made.

Participating in the arrests were the Abita Springs, Bogalusa and St. Tammany parish sheriff's offices. Parker said they recovered almost all the stolen items.

"Apparently, it was a burglary ring," he commented. "Two trailers full of goods were impounded, along with stolen vehicles and the items in the houses."

Parker added that Curtis and Leemans were in the St. Tammany parish jail pending extradition to Mississippi, where they face burglary charges.

FIGHT ARRESTS

According to Bay St. Louis Police Department Investigator David Parker, a Bay St. Louis couple and a Waveland resident were arrested early Sunday morning at the Dock of the Bay lounge.

Parker said officers Joe Kepfer, Richard Hannah and Kurt Raymond broke up a fight and arrested Richard Eugene Kennedy, Diane Kennedy and Chadwick Sterling McGuire.

Richard Kennedy, 34, was charged with disorderly conduct, interfering with a police officer, public drunk and assaulting a police officer. Bond was set at $6,100.

Diane Kennedy, 32, was charged with interfering with a police officer, assaulting a police officer and resisting arrest. Bond was set at $6,000.

Chadwick McGuire, 31, of Waveland was charged with disorderly conduct, resisting arrest and carrying a concealed weapon. Bond was set at $1,500.

'La Cage aux Folles' run extended thanks to sold out performances

Bay St. Louis Little Theater's current production of 'La Cage aux Folles' has been held over for two additional performances on Friday and Saturday, March 15-16.

The March 1, 2 and 9 performances are sold out, announced director Larry Heller.

"There are not many seats still available for the 15th and 16th, so reservations are a must," Heller said. "On Saturday, Feb. 23, we had to turn away about 20 people who have been accustomed to arriving at our Boardman Avenue Playhouse without reservations.

"The staff, cast and I are delighted with the wonderful public response to this musical," Heller said.

BSLLT's production is the first amateur showing of the 1983 Broadway hit, attracting theatergoers from all over the Mississippi Gulf Coast as well as from Louisiana and Alabama, Heller said.

The March 1 performance will be dedicated to the memory of Mary Scafide Carter, one of the founders of BSLLT, who died this week at age 82.

For reservations for March 15-16, call 467-1304 between 11 a.m. and 5 p.m.

Dinner with a plot twist offered at Waveland Inn

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

A murder will take place this weekend at the Waveland Resort Inn and only you can solve the mystery.

As people arrive for dinner, cocktails and clues will be served. But, beware. That couple sitting next to you could be dead within the next hour.

As you enter the dining room and are seated at a table, be sure to notice with whom you are seated.

Suddenly, the solitary man with the shifty eyes, at the next table, keels over and falls to the floor. "Oh, no. He has been poisoned. How?"

The police is called in and an investigation into the circumstances surrounding his death is conducted between courses.

As a witness, you may contribute any tidbits of information you may have noticed, or you may just sit back, enjoy your dinner and watch as the mystery unfolds.

Either way, by dessert, the truth will be known. Eddie May Mystery Theater is the brain child of Mark Monahan of Canada.

Monahan formed the Eddie May Detective Agency six years ago. Eddie May is a fictitious character, and the agency is a group of script writers.

Actors and actresses are recruited from the area of production. The night's events are improvisational.

The events of the evening occur throughout a three-hour full course meal.

The audience is encouraged to participate in solving the mystery. The actors and actresses mingle with the audience, concealing their roles until the events begin to unfold.

At dinner's end, each guest tries to solve the crime and whoever figures out, "who done it," is eligible for a prize.

Ronnie Knowles, a childhood Waveland resident, is responsible for bringing Eddie May here.

He established the mystery dinner theater at the St. Charles Restaurant in New Orleans and at the Camellia Beach House in Mandeville, La., before crossing the state line to the Coast.

Knowles said over 50 percent of Eddie May's productions are called for by corporations and group parties where participation is the attraction.

The staff of writers at the Agency have more than 66 scripts presently written for production and, according to Knowles, he intends to draw his next cast from coastal residents for the March production thereby establishing a local company.

CHINESE PUPPETS

The story of the ancient tradition of puppetry in China is told in "Theater of the Palms," airing at 10:30 p.m., Friday, March 1, on Mississippi ETV. Puppet master Lee Tien-Lu gently rules behind the stage curtain, as the ten-inch-high puppets of the I Wan Ran Puppet Troupe enact tales of ancient history, myth and religion. Lee, now 80 years old, tells of his family's legacy, which is part of a performing culture dating from the 9th century.

Inmates from the state penitentiary at Parchman addressed students from Bay High, St. Stanislaus and Our Lady Academy in the Bay High Fine Arts auditorium last week. The event was coordinated and refreshments were served by Drug Free Schools Association. The three prisoners who spoke told of their histories of substance abuse and the crimes which resulted. Navy to dedicate Stennis supercomputer center

Dedication ceremonies will be Friday, March 8 at 2 p.m. for a new center housing the U.S. Navy's most powerful supercomputer at the Stennis Space Center in Hancock County.

Sen. Trent Lott, Fifth District U.S. Rep. Gene Taylor, Rear Adm. Geoffrey L. Chesbrough, Oceanographer of the Navy, and Rear Adm. James E. Koehn, Commander, Naval Oceanography Command, are among the featured speakers.

The cornerstone of the supercomputer center, located at the Naval Oceanographic Office, is an eight processor Cray Y-MP supercomputer provided by Cray Research Inc., Minneapolis, Minn.

The supercomputer and associated support systems are housed in approximately 12,600 gross square feet built specifically for this purpose.

Grumman Data Systems Corporation, Woodbury, N.Y., procured and installed the system and its associated subsystems under a $41 million contract signed in April 1990. Installation of the Cray Y-MP 8/8128 was completed in November 1990. Since then, it has been running the highest resolution eddy-resolving ocean models for ocean basins in the world.

The contract also allows an option to install another Class VII supercomputer at the Fleet Numerical Oceanography Center in Monterey, Calif.

Together, these two supercomputers are known as the Primary Oceanographic Prediction System (POPS). POPS will provide the computing capability to enable modeling of the world oceans and atmosphere to the accuracy and resolution required to provide improved predictions of the environmental parameters which affect the success or failure of Naval weapon and sensor systems.

CIVIL WAR

In "The Civil War," filmmaker Ken Burns brings to life the conflict that tore our country apart and defined us as a nation. The Mississippi Educational Television Network endorses this critically acclaimed nine-part series beginning at 8 p.m. Sunday, March 3, and continuing the next four nights at 9.

Episode One, "The Cause - 1861," examines slavery and the causes of war and charts the sequence of events that led up to the firing on Fort Sumter.

Introducing the series' major figures—including Abraham Lincoln, Frederick Douglass, Jefferson Davis, and other less well known—the episode comes to a climax with the first Battle of Bull Run.

The system at the Stennis Space Center becomes the sixth by the U.S. Navy. It has greater computational capability than the other five combined.

SSC baseball opens Friday

The St. Stanislaus Baseball Rock-A-Chows open their 1991 season tomorrow at home under the direction of new Head Coach Carey Ourso.

Ourso comes to SSC from Central Catholic in Morgan City, La., where last year his team competed in the state finals and were eliminated by the eventual state champions.

The Rocks' opening opponent will be Stringer, "possibly the best single A team in the state," according to Ourso. "Last year they were eliminated in the playoffs by the state champions Mercy Cross."

This year the Rocks boast a lot of returning experience. Four of five starters in the infield are returning, and two of three starters in the outfield are returnees.

Joining in the starting lineup are sophomores Sonny Valentine at second, and John Bishop at right field.

The Rock pitching staff is a mixture of youth and experience with two seniors, Carriee and Brian Potter; two juniors, Terrell LaFontaine and Kendall Daniels; and one sophomore Brady Price.

"Our pitching staff is inexperienced and unproven," Ourso noted, "but they have worked hard and progressed tremendously. I look for them to accept the challenge ahead and be successful."

"Adam Breerwood should lead the team in hitting and be followed closely by Peterson, John Rutherford, Jacobi, and Quinlan.

"We should be fairly strong offensively. We will be aggressive in our attempt to put runs on the board to protect our inexperienced pitching staff," Ourso added.

Other new players include Dale DeCamp in the outfield and Bernard Sy at pinch runner.

Following Friday's opener, the Rocks will turn around on Saturday and face O. Perry Walker in a double header. This

BAYS girls wreck Ocean Springs

The Bay Wreckers, Under-14 Girls Bay Area Youth Soccer team, opened the season with two decisive wins over Ocean Springs last week, according to Coach Sharon Reid and Assistant Coach Mike Perniciaro.

In the first game, the Bay Wreckers defeated Ocean Springs 7-1. The first quarter showed Suzanne Reid making two goals, one assisted by Marion Labat, and Reid assisted in a goal made by Nikki Krost. Michelle Perniciaro and Lindy Heitzmann each kicked in a score on their own.

During the fourth quarter, Ocean Springs scored one goal, but in the last few minutes of the game Gwyn Krost scored and Danette Fredrick, the team's goalie, playing an offensive position, scored a goal.

In the second game, the Bay Wreckers defeated Ocean Springs 7-0. During the first half, Nikki Krost scored, and Michelle Perniciaro scored with an assist by Suzanne Reid.

In the second half, Suzanne Reid topped off the list with a total of three goals, one scored alone, and two with assistance by Michelle Perniciaro. Nikki Krost scored again during this half and assisted in Michelle Perniciaro scoring.

Defensive efforts were outstanding by all, according to Coach Reid. Danette Fredrick served as goalie, with Gwyn Krost, Shalon Bradley, Marion Labat and Haidi Kerbl filling out the strong defensive team.

On the offensive side, Lindy Heitzmann, as center half back, did a superb job of covering the field, assisted by Katrina Nordin, Erica Schwartz and Ginger Felder.

"Our team showed excellent skills in these first two games," said Reid, "and we look forward to a truly exciting season this year."

The Bay Wreckers participated in the Great Day of Soccer held several weeks ago in Gulfport. Lindy Heitzmann scored in the top ten overall of her age group and was presented with an award at ceremonies held Feb. 8. These scores are based on points received in drills for kicking, dribbling, throwing in and other soccer skills.

Bottom line fines, cleanup hours added to '91 Marine Litter Law

BY JACQUI COCHRAN

Bay Middle School sixth grade students are feeling a bit more chipper this week after hearing the news that the Marine Litter Law, for which they have been lobbying, left the Senate with the addition of minimum monetary fines and community service hours for violations.

The bill now moves on to the House of Representatives and the conservation committee, where Representative J.P. Compretta says changes can still be made.

Compretta stated "If nothing else, the bill will stay as it is. But, we are going to work on it and try to include the closed container amendment."

The Mississippi Marine Litter Act of 1989 became a class project for the sixth grade students of Jane Lamb and Jeanette Handshoe when the students discovered the law was to expire come July 1 of this year.

As a lesson in the legislative process, the students practiced their letter writing skills by contacting every sixth grade class in the State of Mississippi, soliciting their support, and to various political figures.

"We wrote over 500 letters," said Michael Gilmore of Bay Middle School, "and our hands were sore."

According to Handshoe, Senator Vic Frankiewicz reported to her that many of the Senators commented on the number of letters they had received from "kids" asking that the law be continued.

Lamb firmly believes "the letter writing blitz and the personal lobbying by the students in Jackson" to be the reasons why the Marine Litter Law will not die.

In January the students visited Jackson, via a grant from Mississippi Power Company, to lobby the Senators in person.

Frankiewicz introduced Bill No. 2338 in January. The bill, written by the Bay Middle School students, retained the wording of the original law, stating it was illegal to dump various materials into marine waters.

The students went further with Bill No. 2338, by adding minimum monetary fines and community service hours in clean up to the penalties for violations.

They wrote that the second time offender would pay ten times the money and stood to lose his/her boating license.

The students refused to excuse their own peers by requiring that those under 18 years of age be given clean up time as punishment, reasoning that fines would affect the parents more than the juvenile.

Aaron Clayborn, Lisa Yarborough

Student Marty Poolson explained, "If they couldn't pay the fine, they could at least do clean up hours."

And finally, bill No. 2338 required that materials of hazard, such as gasoline, paint, oil, varnishes, etc., be kept in closed containers as a precaution against spills.

Bill No. 2338 died in the Senate committee.

What did emerge from committee was a bill introduced by Sen. Thomas Gollott of Harrison County, No. 2395, which repeated the original law.

Once the new bill, No. 2395 was presented on the Senate floor, Frankiewicz moved to include the students' amendments, excluding the closed container requirement.

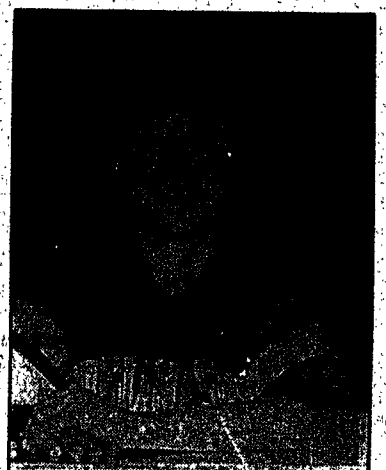

"Bill No. 2395 takes the repealer out, and puts in the penalties we had," said Liam Fitzpatrick, "but not the closed container."

Frankiewicz reported certain members of the Senate felt the closed container clause was too restrictive. Spillage from overturned boats was thought to be "not significant" to the pollution problems addressed by the bill.

The Senate approved Bill No. 2395 and now it moves on to the House of Representatives.

tatives where it will be studied in committee once again.

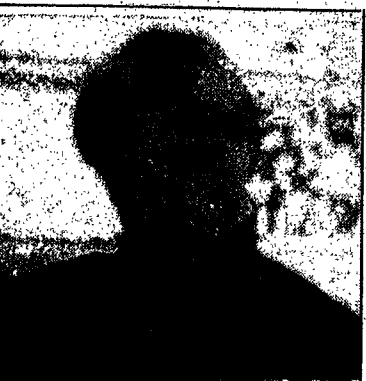

"We are writing to the representatives now," said student Jessica Pearson.

Comptroller reported that the bill must emerge from committee by March 5 or otherwise it ends there.

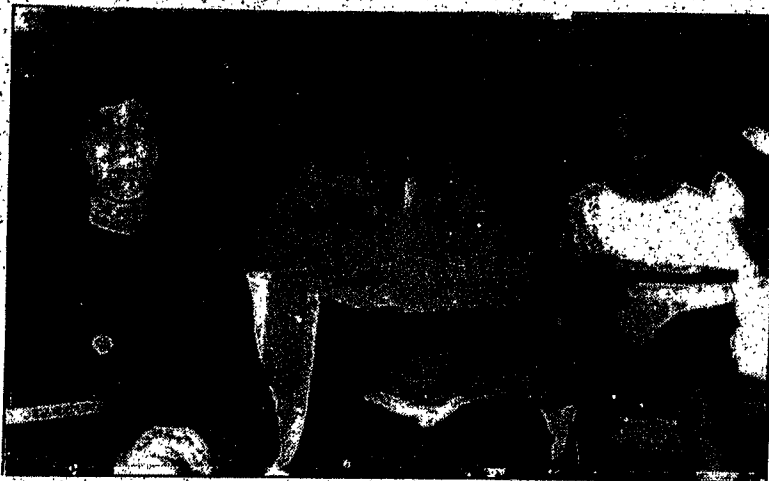

Adam Uhles

Sixth grader Stephen Heaps notes, "We need to get this bill passed. If not, you can litter everywhere you want."

Michael Gilmore

The Bay Middle students are continuing to push for the last of their amendments. Whether or not they pass, Lamb said, the lesson is in the sense of power they are feeling through a united effort.

"If we had not done all of this (lobbying), we would not have any law," added sixth grader Jason Bounds.

Paula Estapa

Enough money remains from the Mississippi Power Company grant for a return trip to Jackson, should the bill make its way to the

Kellie Necaise

Governor's desk. And should it do so, Bay Middle School's sixth grade lobbyists will be present to witness the fruit of their labors.

Jessica Greene's winning self-portrait

Imitating life

New Orleans second-grader wins contest with self-portrait

BY TRACI BONNEY
For seven-year-old Jessica Greene, life is art.

Jessica, a student at Robert Lusher Elementary School in New Orleans, was the winner in the recently held Young'N Arts poster contest. The contest, an annual event open to students in kindergarten through sixth grade and drawing 723 entries this year, was started to instill interest and appreciation of art in young people.

Jessica is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Greene of New Orleans and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. William von Planta of Diamondhead.

Her winning entry is a painting in blue and orange of an artist's self-portrait holding a portrait of an artist holding a portrait of an artist holding a portrait. The technique, called repeating (for obvious reasons), caught Jessica's interest during her study of some of the masters in an art program at Lusher.

In a February 19 article in the Times-Picayune, Jessica said, "When you stop and think about it, most everything has art contained in it."

Some of Jessica's favorite subjects include drawing birds and fish, and she has created a few cartoon characters as well.

As first-place winner in the poster contest, Jessica will study art this summer in a University of New Orleans mini-college series designed for youngsters.

Although only seven, she knows what she wants to do with the rest of her life. "Oh, yes, I want to be an artist when I grow up. I don't know yet exactly what kind of artist because art is everywhere. There's so much to do."

Thombai Arts Competition open to Mississippi artists

The Mississippi Museum of Art will hold its premiere Thombai Arts Competition April 5 offering Mississippi artists chances for cash prizes and exhibition opportunities at the MMA in Jackson.

This first-ever competition will be held in conjunction with the black-tie dinner and auction segment of Thombai, the museum's annual chief fund raiser, scheduled for April 5. The Thombai Gold Award (best in show) work will earn the artist a $1,500 cash prize and a one-person exhibition at the MMA.

The competition is an effort to provide Mississippi artists the exposure and exhibition opportunity they deserve while generating support for the MMA in Jackson and its two branch museums in Tupelo and Biloxi.

A selection of 30-plus works will be chosen from those pieces submitted in the painting, sculpture, prints, ceramics and drawings categories.

These works will be premiered at the Thombai Black-Tie Gala April 5 at the MMA and will remain on exhibit for two weeks. All works submitted may be sold by the MMA in auction that evening. Award-winning pieces will be sold by live auction, and other pieces will be sold by silent auction.

The Thombai Silver Award will be $1,000, and the Thombai Bronze Award will be $750. There will also be six Thombai Awards of Excellence designated. Each of the artists accepted into the competition will receive one-third of the proceeds earned from the sale of their works.

Long-time veteran of the art world, Marena Grant Morrissey, executive director of the Orlando Museum of Art, will juror the competition.

Artists must submit slides of their works by Monday, March 18 to: Thombai Arts Competition, Mississippi Museum of Art, 201 E. Pascagoula Street, Jackson, MS 39201. All works chosen for exhibition must be delivered to the MMA by Monday, April 1. All practicing Mississippi artists and past and present residents are eligible.

In the European tradition, a Salon des Refuses exhibition will also be held at the MMA for those works of merit which are not chosen to be among the 30 finalists. Artists in this exhibition will also receive one-third of the proceeds from the sale of their works during auction.

For more information call 960-1515 or 1-800-423-4971.

Artists, craftsmen, entertainers sought for Jackson festival

The March 1 application deadline is approaching for artists, craftsmen and performers to jazz up the 1991 Jubilee! Jackson Arts and Music Festival in downtown Jackson May 18 and 19. The festival, a program of Arts Alliance of Jackson and Hinds counties, is the state's largest.

Artists and craftsmen and their works will be highly visible in an Artists' market on Capitol Street in front of the Governor's Mansion.

Participants will be selected on the basis of four recent standard 2-inch by 2-inch 35-millimeter color slides of the work to be shown at the festival.

A 10-by-10-ft. waterproof tent with roll-down sides will be provided, along with electricity up to 500 watts. Mississippi Craftsmen's Guild members are exempt from the jurying process.

Interested artists should call (601) 355-FEST or write to Artists' Market, Jubilee! JAM, P.O. Box 2107, Jackson, MS 39205. Performers should send an audition tape, a photo and written information to the attention of 'Music' at the same address.

Deposit Guaranty National Bank, Jackson Coca-Cola Bottling Co. and Budweiser/Southern Beverage Co. Inc. are major sponsors of Jubilee! JAM.

Morning Stiffness: Arthritis Warning Sign #1

If your morning is filled with stiffness in the joints that lasts more than just a few minutes, you may have a problem that needs to be treated. And the earlier you seek treatment, the better the chances are that the arthritis can be arrested... before it does permanent damage.

There are literally dozens of different types of arthritis, many of which may start off with morning stiffness. In point of fact however, different kinds of arthritis may lead to different kinds of complications, some of which are affecting virtually everyone's daily life.

That's why it's so important to find a physician who specializes in the diagnosis and treatment of these disorders. Dr. Marielisa, a board-certified M.D. degree holder, has spent years in either a pediatric or a rheumatology training program, and has board certification in one of those areas. Dr. Marielisa, Dr. Marielisa Sedrish, is board certified in both Medicine and Pediatrics. Dr. Sedrish's method of training is successfully used by many other doctors. Then begins an additional two-year training program (called a "fellowship") in rheumatology, concentrating on the diagnosis and treatment of only the conditions known as arthritis and connective tissue diseases.

The end result of all these years of training is the ability to recognize what kind of arthritis the patient has, the understanding of which will help in the diagnosis and treatment of the disease. The knowledge of what kind of treatment are the most successful in each case.

Once an accurate diagnosis is made, treatment can be begun and the disease can be kept under control. Then, working with your regular family doctor, the Rheumatologist and your insurance company, the Rheumatologist and your insurance company can keep you on the right track.
